

Please refrain from imposing your will on the state of New Jersey with regards our "do not call list." We need not be told how to govern ourselves. We are pleased with the law and its intended results. Unwanted and unsolicited tele-marketing is a violation of privacy. A lobbying group has no right to circumvent the will of the people and our right to privacy.